Board Meeting

May 3, 2012

- PDSA110155 Refer to Attorney General for revocation of instructor license of respondent; refer to Enforcement for investigation of associated company and individual registrant.

Scarlett Shell spoke to Board Members regarding the new Georgia Open Records and Meetings Law that took effect on April 18, 2012 when Governor Nathan Deal signed House Bill 397 into law. Some of the new provisions in the Georgia Open Records and Meetings Law will require minutes to be taken of the closed portions or Executive Sessions of Board Meetings and will increase fines for offenders. Ms. Shell further stated that these minutes will not be open to the public and Board Members will need to approve the minutes of Executive Session at each Board Meeting.

John Villines moved, Tripp Mitchell seconded, and the Board unanimously voted as follows on the items of other business:

• Mike Mizell Millennium Security Services, LLC	Request for information regarding transfers.	Steve Lindsey to draft a transfer application to be reviewed by the Attorney General.
